

MEDIA ALERT:

HIBERNIA ATLANTIC'S CEO TO SPEAK AT CAPACITY USA 2009 IN NEW YORK CITY

SUMMIT, NJ & NEW YORK, NEW YORK – April 21, 2009- Hibernia Atlantic, the largest, privately held, diverse TransAtlantic submarine cable provider is pleased to announce CEO, Bjarni Thorvardarson's participation at Capacity USA 2009. The panel, entitled "Assessing the Status of Current and New Sub Sea Cable Routes and Meeting Demand for International Connectivity; Trans-Pacific and Trans-Atlantic" will be held on April 21st in New York.

The panel will discuss current capacity availability into and out of the US, traffic patterns, pricing and connectivity. Bjarni will also speak on the need for route diversity, security and protected network solutions. The panel will also assess the status of new cable projects, such as Hibernia's new cable build into Northern Ireland including Belfast and twelve other cities, and forecast on the demand for capacity in the US and from the US to Latin America, Europe and Asia. There will also be a brief discussion on the implications of the move from 10Gbps to 40Gbps on backbone technology and fiber infrastructure. Again, the panel will discuss the importance of route diversity to meet customer demands in a changing environment.
